

what you are doing is clearly electioneering. You are favoring one candidate over another. Journalists, whether print or television or radio, must remain unbiased. You have no right to choose sides and support one candidate. You must be fair to both candidates, or you lose all credibility as any type of reporting media. Thank God for cable!